

Subject to years of physical attacks & surveillance for standing up for people evicted from their homes in China.

Facing a life sentence in Chad for a Facebook post criticizing government policy.

There are eight more cases from around the world...
WRITE for rights and change lives!

Join us at Sacramento's Write for Rights events
and be part of the world's largest letter writing event!

Every year in December, millions of participants worldwide write letters on behalf of people around the world persecuted or jailed for their beliefs and words. There will be opportunities to email or tweet as well.

Amnesty International Sacramento
Human Rights Week – Write for Rights Events

Sunday December 10, 2017
drop in between 2:00 pm and 5:00 pm

Luna's Cafe & Juice Bar
1414 16th STREET, MIDTOWN SACRAMENTO

16th Street between N and O Streets.
Street parking free on Sundays.

————— Come to one or both of the events during human rights week —————

Wednesday December 13, 2017
drop in between 5:00 pm and 7:30 pm

Sacramento Public Library
McClatchy Branch - Upstairs Meeting Room
2112 22nd STREET, SACRAMENTO

22nd Street between U and V Streets. Free street parking. Free Wi-fi available for emails or tweets.

These events are open to the public. All materials (background information, sample letters, writing supplies, stamps) will be provided. Any amount of time is appreciated.

For more information visit www.amnestysacramento.org
Contact Sacramento Amnesty International with questions at amnestysacramento@gmail.com